Amor Prohibido

A Tribute To Selena

About

Amor Prohibido is a Selena tribute band based in San Diego, California. The band has been playing together for over 6 years and has been active since 2014.

The group has been hailed by fans and critics alike as one of the best Selena tribute bands in the U.S., with a focus on performing Selena's music with accuracy. Since 2014, Amor Prohibido has dominated America with more sold out shows than any other tribute band.

Fronted by Nira Perez, the show is built around a strong visual and vocal resemblance to Selena, along with exact mannerisms and an identical voice. Fans agree that Amor Prohibido delivers the closest experience to the original Selena fronted lineup.

The performance centers on the 90's era when Selena's music ruled the airwaves. With seven musicians onstage, Amor Prohibido presents a full tribute format that stays focused on faithfully recreating the feel of Selena's music live.
