About

Aquarius is a six-member tribute to the late 60s, built around the music and stage spirit of the period between Monterey Pop in 1967 and Woodstock in 1969. The show draws on artists named in the era's musical shift, including Jimi Hendrix, Sly and the Family Stone, Janis Joplin, and Grace Slick, and focuses on the signature hits and personality of that time.

The band is presented for concerts in the park, street festivals, casinos, and private events, and has worked for both large and small audiences. The format pairs colorful costumes, a fast-moving show, on-stage banter, and wardrobe changes with full rock instrumentation: two guitars, bass, keyboards, and drums. Rich vocal harmonies are a central part of the sound.

Aquarius performs dozens of well-known songs from the period. The repertoire includes music from The Mamas & the Papas, Roy Orbison, Steppenwolf, The Moody Blues, The Guess Who, and Joe Cocker, along with performance tributes in the style of Janis Joplin, Grace Slick, Sly Stone, John Fogerty, and Jimi Hendrix.

The look and pacing of the show are designed to connect with people who lived through the late 60s while also giving younger audiences a clear point of entry into the music. The concept has drawn strong interest, with more than one venue sold out before the band performed.
