About

Bad Romance is a Lady Gaga tribute band based in Atlanta, Georgia, built around a live show of Gaga hits. The act is designed to recreate the look, sound, and feel of the original artist, with veteran musicians, live dancers, and stage chemistry developed through performing together.

Lead vocalist Lisa Peterson performs in iconic Gaga costumes and matches Gaga's vocal range and stage movements. The result is a show that stays close to the visual and musical cues buyers expect from a Lady Gaga tribute.

Bad Romance performs for 2 hours straight without a break, keeping the set focused on familiar songs and a continuous concert and dance-floor feel. The presentation is professional, high-energy, and audience-engaging from start to finish.

For buyers looking for a clear Lady Gaga tribute format, Bad Romance offers a full live tribute show built around recognizable material and a complete stage presentation for audiences of all ages.
