About

Beach St. A GoGo! is a 6-person, family-friendly event band based in Valley Village, California, bringing the hit-driven sound of the 1960s to festivals, corporate events, private functions, social clubs, VFWs, restaurants with entertainment, weddings, nightclubs, and car shows.

Originally formed in Florida in 2011 by founder and lead singer TJ Rosenman, the band was carefully recast on the West Coast in 2017. The lineup is made up of musicians with many years of entertainment experience and is built for a full, big-sounding live show.

The song list focuses on fun, familiar material people can listen to, dance to, and sing along with, while steering away from the more psychedelic side of the era. Nearly every song is a Billboard #1 hit or Top 10 selection from the 1960s. The set pulls from The Beatles, The Beach Boys, Elvis, 60s girl groups, one-hit wonders, Motown, and more.

Rather than centering on a single artist, Beach St. A GoGo! covers a full decade of hits. In a three-hour show, the band plays close to 50 songs by more than 40 bands and singers that defined a generation.

Shows can be booked as one, two, or three hours and may include costume changes, audience participation, and stories about the bands and songs. The result is a format that works for multi-generational crowds, from younger listeners to people who rarely get to hear the music of their youth played live.
