Cash: The American Tribute Show

Johnny Cash tribute led by Cliff Wright, built around the Man in Black’s best-known songs

About

Cash: The American Tribute Show is a Johnny Cash tribute led by Cliff Wright, built around the songs, stories, and legacy of the Man in Black.

Cliff Wright is known for his rich baritone voice, authentic stage presence, and deep respect for Johnny Cash’s music. He portrayed Johnny Cash for five years in the Tony Award-winning musical Million Dollar Quartet and has also starred in The Highwaymen Live and Cash After Dark in Las Vegas.

The show focuses on Johnny Cash’s best-known material, including Folsom Prison Blues, Ring of Fire, I Walk the Line, A Boy Named Sue, Get Rhythm, and Sunday Mornin’ Comin’ Down. Between songs, Cliff shares stories and history that highlight Cash’s career and lasting influence on American music.

For buyers, the format is easy to place: a professional, family-friendly tribute suited to theaters, performing arts centers, casinos, fairs, festivals, corporate events, and special occasions. The presentation is clear and recognizable, with familiar material that works for audiences who know the catalog well and for listeners hearing these songs performed live for the first time.

For events that need a focused Johnny Cash tribute, this show offers a straightforward set of well-known songs and a presentation built to honor the music directly.
