Crystal Ship

A Tribute to The Doors

About

Crystal Ship is a Doors tribute based around the sound, look, and feel of the band's live 1960s era.

The show centers on the music of Jim Morrison and The Doors, with a focus on recreating the intensity and details associated with a live Doors concert.

Crystal Ship uses vintage gear, instruments, and costumes, and features Doors front man Eddie Racci.

The set includes well-known Doors songs such as Light My Fire, L.A. Woman, Riders On The Storm, Hello, I Love You, and The End.

The group's focus is straightforward: keep The Doors' legacy alive through a detailed tribute performance built for Doors fans and general classic rock audiences alike.
