All American Girl

Tribute to Carrie Underwood

About

All American Girl is a Carrie Underwood tribute built around Felice, whose background includes long-running casino and theater productions in Las Vegas and Reno.

Before graduating from UNLV, Felice was cast as the principal singer in Les Folies Bergere at the Tropicana Hotel and Casino, the longest running show on the Las Vegas Strip. She performed there nightly until the production closed after nearly 50 years.

She later joined American Superstars at the Stratosphere Hotel and Casino, where she starred as Carrie Underwood in a tribute Felice originated for the show and which received rave reviews.

Felice also produced, directed, and starred in two of her own productions: Country Diva, a tribute to country's biggest female stars, and The Cover Girls, where she performed with two other women in a show featuring Rat Pack tributes, Broadway standards, and rock and roll favorites.

Between those productions, she was one of three divas to headline the iCandy Burlesque show at Planet Hollywood. She has also starred in Fantasy at the Luxor Hotel and Casino.

In her hometown of Reno, Nevada, Felice returned to Carrie Underwood material in Red Hot Superstars at the Grand Sierra Resort. In March 2015, she completed a two-year run in the Tony Award-winning musical Million Dollar Quartet at Harrah's Las Vegas, performing more than 800 shows after the production opened in February 2013.
