About

Ron Crites fronts a George Jones tribute built around the voice, chemistry, and mannerisms associated with George Jones. He has performed on his own for over 40 years and has appeared in venues including Carnival Cruise Lines, theaters, major hotels, and lounges.

Since his first stage appearance in Orlando, Florida in 1972, Ron has spent his career performing throughout the United States. In Nashville, he performed with many entertainers who told him it was like singing with George Jones himself.

The show is designed for buyers who want a clear George Jones tribute format with familiar songs, storytelling, and a professional presentation. It is positioned to work for casino venues, local theaters, corporate events, and private parties, while also connecting with longtime George Jones listeners and younger fans discovering the material for the first time.
