In The End

A Tribute to Linkin Park

About

The Premier Linkin Park Experience
IN THE END is more than a tribute band. Full of music industry veterans, they have performed with some of the biggest artists and on some of the greatest stages in the world. They create a live show that is second to none, and the crowd reaction to these shows is a testimony to that fact. They have even partnered with mental health non-profit organizations such as Change Direction, To Write Love On Her Arms, and more. Their goal is to provide financial support to these organizations, as well as provide global platforms to openly discuss the issues surrounding mental health awareness.
