METALLIFORNIA

Tribute to Metallica

About

METALLIFORNIA is a Metallica tribute focused on the band's classic 1983-1993 era. Based in Southern California, the group recreates the look, sound, and onstage energy associated with Metallica's most recognized years.

The set centers on well-known songs including Fade to Black, Master of Puppets, Seek and Destroy, and Enter Sandman. The performance is built to feel like a classic Metallica show, with a faithful approach to the band's style and pace.

For buyers, the pitch is straightforward: a clear Metallica tribute with familiar material, a defined era focus, and a presentation aimed at fans who want the feel of a classic Metallica performance.
