Ozzmosis

Tribute to Ozzy Osbourne

About

OZZMOSIS is a Texas-based tribute band centered on the music and legacy of Ozzy Osbourne. The act focuses on material from Ozzy's solo career along with selected songs tied to his time as the former lead singer of Black Sabbath.

The show is built to reflect the sound, vocal style, stage presence, and live atmosphere associated with Ozzy Osbourne. The band's approach is rooted in closely studying those performance details and bringing them into a tribute format that fans will immediately recognize.

Their set includes well-known Ozzy songs such as Crazy Train, Bark at the Moon, No More Tears, Mr. Crowley, and more. For buyers, that means a tribute built around familiar catalog material with strong audience recognition.

OZZMOSIS also incorporates visual elements associated with Ozzy's stage persona, including dark clothing, signature accessories, and theatrical touches. The result is an Ozzy tribute that is easy to place for rock rooms, tribute bills, and events looking for a set based on widely known heavy metal songs.

The band has built a strong following in Texas and beyond through its focus on recreating the feel of Ozzy's live performances and giving fans a chance to hear the songs that defined his career performed in a dedicated tribute setting.
