Pulp Vixen

Pulp Vixen, emerging from Corona, California, is a phenomenon in the Southern California live entertainment scene. As an all-female band, they bring a fresh, powerful, and fun-loving perspective to live music, specializing as a high-energy cover band that delivers a wide-ranging, interactive setlist.

About

Pulp Vixen is an all-female cover band from Corona, California serving Southern California with a high-energy, all-live show built for dance floors and broad event appeal.

Their setlist covers current Top 40 dance music, classic rock, R&B, Latin, Hip Hop, and Country, with songs by artists including Lizzo, Bruno Mars, Dua Lipa, Michael Jackson, Santana, and Guns N' Roses. The result is a wide-ranging, interactive format that gives buyers flexibility across different crowds and event types.

Pulp Vixen performs for corporate and special events, casinos including Pala and Pechanga, weddings, and festivals. Their show is known for keeping the music moving with little to no downtime, supported by a dynamic stage presentation and high production value.

Their ability to keep the dance floor packed has helped earn trust from brands including Disney and Amazon. The core line-up has included Rosie Aldrete - Lead Guitar, Chrissy Marquez - Drums/Percussion, Jesi Di Palo - bass, Akane Tada - keys, Ruri Matthews - sax, Jonesy Jones - Lead Vocals, and Moxy Ann - Lead Vocals.

Pulp Vixen also offers expanded show formats including acoustic duo and trio options. The band proudly endorses Kiesel Guitars/Bass Guitars, Spaun Drum Company, Amedia Cymbals, Black Diamond Strings and Los Cabos Drumsticks.
