Queen Nation

A Tribute to Queen

About

Queen Nation is a visual and musical tribute to Queen, formed in 2004 by David Hewitt of DMHE Music & Productions Agency. The show centers on the image, sound, and stage persona associated with Queen, with Gregory Finsley on vocals and keyboards as Freddie Mercury, Mike McManus on guitar as Brian May, Pete Burke on drums as Roger Taylor, and Parker Combs on bass as John Deacon.

The band's stated goal is to carry Queen's musical torch for both new and longtime fans by paying homage to the original group. Their set is built around well-known Queen material including We Will Rock You, We Are The Champions, Bohemian Rhapsody, and more, with an emphasis on recreating the feel of a classic Queen concert.

In 2013, Queen Nation was recognized as The World's Greatest Queen Tribute by Mark Cuban, Ryan Seacrest and AXS-TV. The band was also featured in a 1-hour live national broadcast from Hollywood to millions of viewers. AXS-TV later released a World's Greatest Tribute Bands compilation album featuring two tracks by Queen Nation.

According to the supplied bio, the band has recently been selling out several concert hall venues, small PACs, and casino engagements throughout the US, and also completed a Philippines tour. For buyers, the pitch is straightforward: a no-frills Queen tribute focused on familiar songs, recognizable character roles, and the sound and stage feel associated with vintage Queen.
