Raise Your Glass

A Tribute To Pink

RYG Pod

About

Raise Your Glass is a Los Angeles-based tribute production centered on the music and live concert feel of P!nk. Built for talent agencies, showroom directors, nightclub owners, and corporate event planners, the show is designed for buyers who need a high-energy, professional act with broad audience appeal.

The lineup features a four-piece rhythm section fronted by lead vocalist Katrina Danford. Her sound and stage presence are presented as a close recreation of P!nk, supported by two vocalists/dancers who add the movement and vocal support associated with a full P!nk-style show. The band members also provide backing vocals, with attention to musical detail throughout the performance.

Raise Your Glass can be adapted to different booking needs, from a 30-minute set to a two-hour show, including multi-set formats. The production can also be adjusted for audience and client requirements with a family-friendly version that removes explicit or suggestive language from lyrics and stage banter. Costuming is also tailored to suit the audience.

The set focuses on P!nk's most recognizable material, with an emphasis on upbeat songs that encourage singalongs, dancing, and audience participation. The show is built to involve the room rather than keep the crowd at a distance, making it a practical fit for showrooms, concert stages, and corporate events looking for a participatory party atmosphere.
