Redneck Rodeo

Tribute to Country Music

About

Based in Orange County, Redneck Rodeo is a country cover band with more than ten years of experience playing across Southern California, Nevada, and Arizona. Their shows have taken them from backyards to large festivals, with a set built around top country hits from the last six decades.

The band's approach is straightforward and crowd-focused: a steady run of familiar country songs that keeps people singing and dancing in a honky-tonk style. They perform with high energy and lean into a clear country look onstage, with each member wearing custom cuts.

Redneck Rodeo has played corporate events, weddings, festivals, and private parties, giving buyers a band that is easy to place across a range of event formats. For planners looking for a country act with a long-running regional track record and a setlist centered on well-known hits, Redneck Rodeo makes the fit easy to understand.
