Ronstadt Revival

Tribute to Linda Ronstadt

About

Ronstadt Revival is a 7-piece tribute band focused on the music of Linda Ronstadt, with fiddle and pedal steel in the lineup to support the sound of her catalog. The show is built around 100% live music and draws from multiple eras of Ronstadt's recording career.

The set reaches back to her 1967 beginnings with The Stone Poneys, moves through her 1970s recordings of songs by writers including Smokey Robinson, Warren Zevon, Lowell George, The Eagles, and The Rolling Stones, and extends into the New Wave feel of her 1980 album Mad Love.

Songs named in the show include You're No Good, Blue Bayou, When Will I Be Loved, and Tracks of My Tears, along with more from the Ronstadt catalog. For buyers, the format is easy to place: a full-band Linda Ronstadt tribute with recognizable material and a live setup built to deliver the arrangements with the right instrumentation.
