Space Oddity

Space Oddity

About

Space Oddity centers on David Brighton's tribute to David Bowie, built around the voice, look, and stage movement associated with Bowie's most recognizable eras.

Brighton has been credited as one of the leading Bowie impersonators, and the act is presented as a David Bowie tribute with a strong visual and performance focus. Harry Maslin, producer of Bowie's Young Americans and Station to Station albums, said Brighton has the voice, moves, and look to step in for Bowie.

Brighton's credits include appearing alongside David Bowie in TV commercials for Vittel Mineral Water and for Reality, Bowie's CD at the time. In those career-spanning ads, Brighton portrayed several of Bowie's best-known personas, with the campaigns airing in the United States, Great Britain, and across Europe.

He has also appeared as David Bowie on VH1 and in Shakira's concert video. For buyers looking for a Bowie tribute that is easy to place and quick to understand, Space Oddity offers a clear concept tied directly to Brighton's long-running Bowie portrayal work.
