Start Me Up

Tribute to the Rolling Stones

About

Start Me Up is a Rolling Stones tribute focused on the look, sound, and moves fans expect from Mick, Keith, and the band. The show is built as a high-energy set with the kind of crowd response that gets people dancing and singing along from the opening songs through the encore.

The band performs Rolling Stones hits from across the catalog, covering music released over seven decades. The aim is a concert feel that lets audiences relive the sound and stage presence associated with the Stones.

Start Me Up suits corporate events, private events, theatres, and concert settings.
