Sweet Seasons

Sweet Seasons-A Carole King Tribute

About

There have been few singer/songwriters that have been as prolific and impactful as Carole King.
Driven by an intense love and admiration for Carole's music, seasoned musical artist Carla Buffa, joined by a talented group of musicians, pays homage to King's legend with a show that includes all of her chart-topping hits that you've come to know and love over the years, and more.
You'll be transported back in time by Carla's detailed renderings of such classic numbers as "It's Too Late," "So Far Away," "I Feel the Earth Move," "Jazzman," "You've Got a Friend," "Locomotion," and many more! Carla possesses the look, voice, and musicianship to faithfully pay tribute to this iconic artist with outstanding accuracy and attention to detail.
You'll get to enjoy Carole's 1972 masterpiece album, "Tapestry" in its entirety. (This album won four Grammy's – including Album of the Year, and is one of the best-selling albums of all time.) Carla follows this with the hits that Carole wrote for herself and for other artists. She adds tidbits of information and stories all through the show, which heightens the experience of listening to Carole King's classic library of songs. This show is timeless, fun, and guaranteed to have you singing along
