The Hollywood Dolls

Andrews Sisters Tribute along with 40's Big Band Swing

About

The Hollywood Dolls: A Tribute to the Andrews Sisters & ’40s Big Band Swing

Step back in time to the dazzling days of the 1940s and swing to the enchanting harmonies of The Hollywood Dolls.

Inspired by the legendary Andrews Sisters, this sensational vocal trio transports audiences to an era filled with big band rhythms, wartime romance, and toe-tapping hits that defined a generation. Featuring beloved classics like Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy, Don’t Sit Under the Apple Tree, and Bei Mir Bist Du Schön, The Hollywood Dolls combine stunning period costumes, authentic choreography, radiant charm, and pitch-perfect three-part harmonies in a high-energy salute to the golden age of American music.

Praised by Lynda Wells, daughter of Maxene Andrews, as “the best tribute she had ever seen,” this nostalgic concert experience captures the spirit, style, and sound of the swing era in a way that delights audiences of all ages.

Special Programming Available: America 250 Edition
In celebration of the United States Semiquincentennial, The Hollywood Dolls offer a patriotic edition of the show featuring beloved wartime and Americana favorites. With deep roots in the WWII swing era, this production is exceptionally well suited for America 250 celebrations, patriotic concert series, and 2026 Semiquincentennial events.
