Crawling - Formerly The Linkin Park Tribute

Tribute to Linkin Park

About

Crawling is a Linkin Park tribute band formed in early 2023 by six established musicians from Orlando, Florida. The project was created to honor Chester Bennington and Linkin Park's catalog after Bennington's passing on July 20, 2017.

The set centers on songs that helped define the band's legacy, including In The End, Crawling, Somewhere I Belong, and Paper Cut. Crawling leans into the 2000s nu metal sound and performs Linkin Park's hits in exact fashion, with radio-quality renditions built for strong crowd recognition and singalong moments.

The live show is geared toward audiences who know the material and want the early 2000s nostalgia that comes with it. Crowd response and singalongs are a core part of the set from the first song.

Crawling is currently playing and available for large rooms, Live Nation rooms, House of Blues, festivals, casinos, rock venues, fly-out dates, and private parties.
