This Was It

Tribute to Michael Jackson

About

This Was It is a 10-person Michael Jackson tribute band built around live performance of his biggest hits. The show is centered on the music and presents these songs as they were intended to be performed in the concert that never was.

The band performs without tracks or lip syncing, giving buyers a fully live concert format. Christian Robinson performs the role of Michael Jackson and brings the energy associated with the King of Pop to the stage.

For venues and events looking for a clear Michael Jackson tribute, This Was It offers a focused concert experience built for audiences who want to hear the songs live.
