Wallen & Wilson: Tributes to Morgan Wallen and Lainey Wilson

Tributes to Morgan Wallen & Lainey Wilson

About

Legends of New Country: Wallen & Wilson is a tribute show built around the music of Morgan Wallen and Lainey Wilson. The format brings both artists into one country-focused live set for buyers who want current chart-driven material and a familiar song list.

The Wallen side of the show centers on the sound and songs associated with Morgan Wallen, including Whiskey Glasses, Last Night, Sand in My Boots, and You Proof. The performance draws from the mix of country, rock, and pop described in his music and is presented as a tribute to his signature style.

The Wilson side of the show focuses on Lainey Wilson's country roots and Southern rock edge. Songs named in the show description include Heart Like a Truck, Things a Man Oughta Know, and Watermelon Moonshine, with the performance built around her vocal-driven material and stage style.

For buyers, the appeal is straightforward: two recognizable new-country catalogs in one show. Legends of New Country: Wallen & Wilson fits events looking for a modern country tribute format with well-known songs from both acts in a single night.
